Hi, my name is Asha White and I represent a defendant named [REDACTED] in Norfolk Superior Court. According to the discovery I have received from the commonwealth, you were the chemist that tested the substances that form the basis of the complaint against [REDACTED] (I attached two documents so you can track down the case I am speaking of). I am writing to see if there is any possibility that I could have a meeting with you in order to be better prepared for the upcoming trial. The weights and results of the testing of the substances are a very important issue in this case, so I was hoping I could speak with you in order to familiarize myself with the process. Please email or call me at your earliest convenience.
